

International Summer School on:
"Life-Cycle Approaches to Sustainable Regional Development"
3rd Edition

July 7-11 2014
Hotel Maris Stella - S. Maria di Leuca

Program of the lectures open to all the students of the Faculty of Economics of Salento University

July 7th
Afternoon

3,00 - 4,00 p.m.

Formal opening and welcome speech by Stefania Massari

Introduction of participants and their expectations

4,00 - 4,30 p.m.

Keynote speech by Fritz Balkau: Overview of sustainability issues and origins

July 8th
Morning

9,00 -11,00 a.m.

Lecture by Guido Sonnemann: Introduction to Life Cycle Management and its applications

Short Lecture by Fritz Balkau: Sustainable supply-chain management in the framework of LCM

Afternoon

2,00 - 4,00 p.m.

Lecture by Bruno Notarnicola: Life Cycle Assessment and LCA case study

July 9th
Morning

9,00 - 10,45 a.m.

Lecture by Renato Marra Campanale: Material Flow Accounting ; the case study of Italy 11,00 a.m. - 1,00 p.m.

Lecture by Bernard Mazjin: Life Cycle Sustainability Assessment

Afternoon

2,00 - 3,00 p.m.

Lecture by Oshani Perera: Sustainable Procurement - principles and practices

3,00-4,00 p.m.

Lecture by Bernard Mazjin: Life Cycle Costing for Sustainable Public Procurement

July 10th

Morning

9,00 - 10,00 am

Lecture by Fritz Balkau: Introduction to principles of Industrial Ecology and sustainable development

10,00-11,00 a.m.

Lecture by Jean-François Vallès: Ecoparks as implementation of Industrial Ecology

Afternoon

2,00 - 3,00 pm

Lecture by Naeem Adibi: Using Life Cycle Assessment for regional development, the North France example

3,00 - 4,00 p.m.

Lecture by Klára Szita Tóthné: Evaluation of Regional Sustainability by Life Cycle Assessment

July 11th

Morning

9,00 – 12,000 a.m.

Consolidation session

Session summaries and overviews

Interactive panel for questions and answers

Conclusions and summary